Club Rules on Etiquette and Behavior

As members of the San Jose Buddhist Judo Club it is our duty to ensure that we exhibit proper discipline and maintain a high level of respect and common courtesy to all. These rules must be adhered to and become common practice at all times.

All students 17 years old and under need to be aware of the rules and by signing below you acknowledge that you understand these rules.

1. Arrive early enough to allow plenty of time to be on the mat before bow-in. If you arrive after bow-in, make sure you let your instructor know when you have arrived.
2. No running, hitting, pushing, rough-housing, shouting or bullying. NO EXCEPTIONS.
3. Properly bow when entering/leaving the dojo and on/off the mat.
4. Exhibit good manners by acknowledging the presence of your sensei, guests or fellow students by an appropriate greeting, such as "good evening" (kon-ba-wa), "hello", "hi Sensei", "thank you" (arrigato gozaimasu) or "good night" (oyasumi-na-sai).
5. Maintain healthy personal hygiene. Hands and feet should be clean before coming to practice. Fingernails and toenails must be clean and trimmed!
6. Always wear footwear (slippers or zoris) when not on the mat. Properly line them up neatly against the edge of the mat (together with toes pointing away from the mat). At no time should you be barefoot off the mat.
7. Proper Judo gi shall be worn at practice as well as tournaments. No jujitsu, Tai Kwon Do or Karate gis are permitted.
8. Wash your gi's regularly! The Judo gi is to be kept neat and clean. Keep your Judo gi and belt together at all times and fold it properly if you do not use a Judo bag.
9. Ask for permission from your sensei prior to leaving the mat during practice, even if it is simply to use the restroom or get a drink of water.
10. Leave all valuables at home. Keep your personal items in one place so you don't forget them when you leave the dojo. The club is not responsible for any lost items.
11. Before you leave the dojo, check to make sure you have all your belongings. Check your area for trash and pick up litter that you see, even if it's not yours. Use the appropriate containers for trash and recycling. Help keep the dojo clean!
12. Students should wait inside the dojo if waiting for parents to pick them up. Do not wander around outside of the dojo.

As a parent/legal guardian of a minor member, I have reviewed the San Jose Buddhist rules on etiquette and behavior with my child and acknowledge that appropriate behavior must be maintained at all times.

I also understand that any inappropriate behavior may result in the membership being revoked..
